

Reimbursement Maximizer

Maximizing collections

Healthcare providers are plagued with many financial issues in this ever-changing healthcare environment. Atos reimbursement maximizer improves fiscal health through affordable and unmatched technology. We offer industry leading revenue cycle solutions to ensure full and accurate payment.

Optimize cash flow

The Atos Reimbursement Maximizer alleviates clients from the burdensome task of loading, managing and maintaining payer contracts for accuracy. It can monitor payer compliance with contract terms and rates. The tool automatically compares reimbursements to each payer's contracted rates. The Reimbursement Maximizer can also negotiate better contracts and ensures you are always working with the latest payer contracts, configured to manage your services and reimbursements.

Atos Reimbursement Maximizer delivers expert contract modeling and remittance data to identify and work underpayments (including denials and partial denials). It allows automation of manual processes up to 80%. Our tool can predict payment on claims before they are paid and anticipate contractual write-offs and identify payment variances. Maximizer tool can also verify every claim was paid correctly and analyzes paid claims line-by-line.
