

The connected manufacturing enterprise

A plant perspective

Challenge:

Reduce expensive downtime and loss of productivity

When downtime is your worst-case scenario, a connected workplace can deliver unwavering support across

- People
- Devices
- Places
- Platforms
- Machines

How do you

- Keep devices fresh and up to date
- Control costs
- Maximize efficiencies
- Prevent breaches
- Improve the employee experience

Solution:

Subscribe to Digital Workplace by Atos

Keep an eye on production and supply chain wherever you are

Across a boundless connected enterprise

From the boardroom to the shop floor

Across the supply chain and out to the customer community

Devices as-a-service

Devices plus support, automated and standardized for a consistent user-focused experience

Unified collaboration

Team collaboration and conferencing tools designed for mobility

Intelligent support

Services enhanced with AI to prevent incidents and analytics to improve satisfaction

Embedded security

Internet-enabled apps and portals shrink the attack surface of the data center

Outcomes:

Simple

Instant

Personalized

Secure

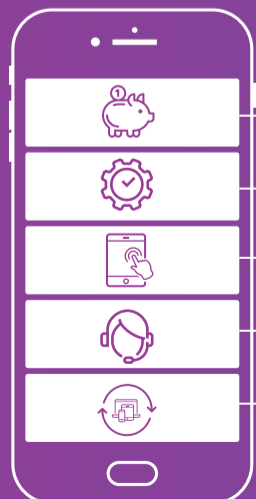

Save millions by

Eliminating downtime caused by old hardware

Cost-effective upgrades to mobile environments

Access to data and applications from any device, any location, at any time

20% - 30% savings on device and support costs

Predictable, per-user monthly subscription model

Flexible device options for employees

50% fewer service desk calls

Automated device management and support

Learn More

Learn more about how Atos helps plant managers to collaborate & improve Manufacturer Enterprise experiences.

