

Bernard Gannier

Chairman
PwC France and Maghreb

Bernard Gannier joined PwC in 1985 in Paris then Marseille in 1990 where he became Partner. He has worked for PwC in Shanghai (China) and San José (California). Back to Paris in 2001, he worked with Telecom and Technologies and became Partner of the Technology & information & Communications, Medias & Leisure.

Bernard has a strong client background serving international clients in various industries. Bernard is statutory auditor for the Vinci Group and Barrière Group. Since 2013, he has been Chairman of PwC France and Maghreb (6,000 people 945m€ Turnover).

He has been driving a major cultural and transformation Change Program, as well as an ambitious innovation and technology investment plan.

Additional Engagements :

Business

Founder of #LetsgoFrance movement in June 2016 which promotes French companies.

Chairman of the Finance Innovation global competitiveness cluster "Pôle finance-innovation" since 2019.

President of the F3P (French Federation of Multidisciplinary Firms) since 2018

Member of the Supervisory Board of Quantum,

Member of the Board of Directors of Data&Data

Societal responsibility

Chairman of the "Institut Télémaque" (since 2019), NGO dedicated to the inclusion and education of French young people

Founder and Chairman of "MOUV'UP", a French NGO dedicated to provide upskilling and on-boarding for unprivileged young people

Member of the Strategy Board of the Aix-Marseille University Alumni Board.

Education

Master's Degree in Law in Aix university

DESS in Business Law

DESS in internal audit

Diploma of French Accounting expertise and US CPA

Languages

French: native

English: fluent