

Atos Wins 'Google Cloud Specialization Partner of the Year, Infrastructure' Award

Paris (France), Sunnyvale (California USA), June 20, 2022 – Atos and Maven Wave, an Atos company, today announced they have received the 2021 Google Cloud Specialization Partner of the Year – Infrastructure Award. Atos was awarded for its achievements in the Google Cloud ecosystem, for its ability to create secure environments, its cloud security best practices and its continuous investment in cloud migration tools and scalable architectures based on Google Cloud, Kubernetes, and Anthos.

Atos was recognized for its capabilities in integrating Google Cloud with customers' operational systems to create a secure environment to host production workloads in a modern scalable way. Additionally, Google recognized Atos for embracing DevSecOps principles in its Managed Cloud Operations business. Atos achieved 11 Google Cloud Partner Specializations.

This recognition reflects Atos' dedication to develop its Google Cloud expertise and to invest in its teams of Google Cloud architects, security and network engineers. In 2021, Atos increased the number of Google Cloud certifications by 106%.

"We are particularly proud to receive this award which strengthens even further our relationships with Google Cloud" explains Michael Liebow, Head of Atos OneCloud. "Atos combined Google Cloud services portfolio brings customers the end-to-end capacity they need to thrive in a secure, data and performance-driven cloud whatever their cloud configuration".

"Google Cloud Specializations recognize partner excellence and proven customer success in a particular product area or industry," said Victor Morales, Managing Director, Global System Integrators Partnerships, Google Cloud. "Based on their certified, repeatable customer success and strong technical capabilities, we're proud to recognize Atos as Specialization Partner of the Year for Infrastructure."

This Atos award complements the Google Cloud awards obtained 4 years in a row, in 2020 as Social Impact Partner of the year, in 2019 as Services Partner of the Year EMEA and North America, in 2018 as Breakthrough Partner of the Year and Services Partner of the Year North America, and in 2017 as Services Partner of the Year – North America.
